Wooltex Coat Week

The pictures show a few of the representative styles, but you are invited to see the entire wonderful collection.

A flying trip to the factory on Saturday brought to us today a hundred extra Wooltex Coats for this event, and through the splendid co-operation of the manufacturers we are able to show the greatest variety and best values of any Wooltex Coat Week during the entire five years that these events have been a feature of our coat year.

WOOLTEX COATS have all the artistic charm that naturally comes from their Paris inspiration. Their beautiful lines are the result of the highest skill in designing, carried out by the most expert tailoring known to ready-to-wear apparel for women.

They are produced with such skill and care as are ordinarily applied only to custom-made garments.

The fabrics are the finest used in the making of women's garments, carefully selected for texture and coloring, and thoroughly shrunken before being made up.

Each coat is lined with soft, rich silk; interlinings are also shrunken. No stiff materials are used to bolster up the shape of the coat; every curve is secured by expert tailoring and the finish of the coat is always soft and luxurious, and the shapeliness stays as long as the coat is worn.

With all their evident superiorities of style, tailoring and finish, Wooltex Coats are sold at the most moderate prices.
